About the author

Ricky Willis is the founder and author behind Skint Dad, a popular personal finance and lifestyle blog. He is also a regular columnist for Mirror Online and Moneywise, which is the leading personal finance magazine in the UK.

About the blog

With the rising cost of living in the UK, households are struggling to make ends meet. The Skint Dad blog aims to help families save and make money in their everyday living, by creating a wide range of easy to digest and actionable information with money as a central theme.

The overall aim of the site is to help families spend less, without living without.
